This stunning 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath home captures some of the most coveted views in Kona. From the front lanais, the panorama extends from historic Kealahou Bay—where Captain Cook first landed in Hawai'i and where dolphins, surfers, and fishermen still gather today, down the beautiful South Kona coastline as far as the eye can see.

The lush one-acre lot features meandering rock walls, paths and steps that wind through the property in a gentle loop, leading to terraced gardens planted with
