Unique property in Hawaiian Ocean View Estates; with a number of living spaces, including a dome...and an accessible lava tube. Buildings have ocean and coastline views, big sunsets and clear night skies for star gazing...and daily ocean breezes. There are lanais and viewing decks for looking, sunning and lounging. There is rudimentary solar power to run lights, a small refrigerator and water and there is a sauna. The property is partially fenced for privacy and has an additional unused building pad at the west end of the parcel. Plenty of potential to develop further
