Welcome to this fully furnished cabin, thoughtfully designed on a post-and-pier foundation that elevates the living space among the treetops. Covered lanais on both sides of the home invite you to relax and enjoy the surrounding forest views. Located just minutes from Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park, this charming two-story home, built in 1986, features soaring ceilings and a rich wood interior that creates a cozy, timeless cabin atmosphere. Set on a beautifully maintained half-acre, the lush property is filled with ōhiʻa trees and a serene hāpuʻu fern forest,
