3 acre lot, located in the Puna District on the Big Island, Hawaiian Acres is known for its large agricultural parcels, and lush rainforest surroundings. Many properties in the area are covered with native ōhiōa trees, ferns, and tropical vegetation, creating a private and natural setting that appeals to those seeking space. One of the biggest advantages of Hawaiian Acres is its proximity to Hilo. Hilo is approximately thirty to forty minutes drive time away, depending on road conditions and the specific location of the property. In Hilo, residents have access
