Lucky you! It's not often that a Lucky Bennett designed home comes available in East Hawaii. This three bedroom home sits in the hills of Papaikou on 3/4 of an acre - only five minutes from all the conveniences of Hilo town. If you don't know Papaikou, this little village still retains its Old Hawaii charm: post office, schools, parks, local convenience stores, and sugar plantation era main street. Classic lava rock walls surround the property and line the driveway. The house has everything you could want: high ceilings, large rooms, covered lanai, even a porte cochere
