RARE FIND-TWO COTTAGES ON ONE LOT IN THE VILLAGE. Built to last from "old growth" lumber, these two cottages have many good years remaining. Having been well maintained over time and with recent upgrades, this property has a lot to offer a savvy Buyer! Each cottage has their own address, their own carport, catchment tank and cesspool. As noted in the Volcano Village Historic Building Inventory prepared by Boone Morrison, Architect in 1993, "the houses were built by a Mr. Horner, said to have been the Hawaii County School Superintendent.
