This rare property shares an historical past with the Old Hawaii ranching days. Situated at an ideal median elevation of approximately 720', this property was once part of McCandless and more recently Kealia Ranch. The land holding of 5 acres is divided by hogwire fencing and dry stack rockwalls into a residential portion of approximately 2 acres while the remaining area is pasture. Crowning this special property is a 4 bedroom 4 bath one level plantation style home that overlooks a captivating ocean view. Within the residential grounds is a
