sqft land listing price

Graded and cleared lot in the Mark Twain community. Located just a few lots from Wakea Avenue, this property offers ocean and coastline views. The county water meter is already paid for and only needs installation, making this lot development-ready. Whether you're planning to build your forever home or an investment property, this serene and convenient location provides the perfect setting. Mature mango tree and rock walls on the property. Only minutes from the historic town of Na'alehu and close to the famous back and green sand beaches.
