This is what legacy land looks like. Five and a quarter acres of oceanfront land with nearly 300 feet of coastline, sweeping Pacific views, and a backdrop of coconut palms against black lava rock. Private and secluded in feel, yet close to paved roads, utilities at the street, and established neighbors among some notable oceanfront estates.

The existing two-story, single-wall cedar home sits hidden from the road, reached by a driveway that winds through a lush canopy of trees before opening to the
