Imagine waking up to birdsong, lush greenery, and natural light. Situated on two acres of native forest, this Fern Acres home offers a great blend of privacy and convenience, with the rare perk of being accessed via fully paved roads. The property feels like your own private park, with winding nature trails right out your back door. The air is naturally filled with the fragrance of mature Puakenikeni trees, making the grounds a quiet retreat where you can spot native birds and enjoy the natural surroundings.
