sqft land sqft living bedrooms bathrooms listing price

Built in 1968- this home is in an incredible location. Right in town to avoid traffic, just around the corner from a large convenience store and gas station, and only a drive down the road to large grocery stores and everything else you could need. With some TLC, the possibilities are endless.

Three bedrooms and one bath plus an enclosed patio being used as a fourth bedroom are a part of the main section of the dwelling. There is also a second bath with shower in the carport. The covered lanai is great for relaxing while watching
