Picture this: you're driving home some afternoon and decide to pull over and jump in the water at a half-mile-long white sand beach. Get back in the car and drive four minutes up the road and park in your 3-car garage. You then rinse off in your lava rock outdoor shower, feel a bit chilly, and go inside to sit by your fireplace and watch the sunset over Wai'ale'ale. Then you go downstairs to the kitchen to grab a snack from the Sub-Zero fridge, or maybe cook something on the Thermador range. Sounds like a dream, but it could be just another Tuesday.
