Land for Sale in North Kona, Big Island | MLS 733814

sqft land listing price

Situated on a desirable interior lot within a well established neighborhood. This property offers an excellent opportunity to build with ease and should provide amazing ocean and coastline views. The lot has already been cleared some time ago and is now grass covered and relatively flat. The adjacent homes on the ocean side (makai) sit much lower than a new house built on this lot, so even a one story home should offer excellent views.
