If you value privacy, solitude, and a connection to nature, but still want convenient access to Pahoa via a paved road, this 5-acre property offers a rare combination. Set within a beautiful Ohia forest, the property features lovely Pacific Ocean views, and thoughtfully designed areas for the main home and separate Ohana. Established off-grid infrastructure includes two independent solar power systems for the main home and Ohana, along with two water storage systems. Meander along the curved, double-track driveway into the heart of the property,
